

The valley of the emerald River Soča, deeply cut between steep slopes, is enchanting and inviting. Its upper part is also known for the Isonzo Front – the area of one of the greatest mountain warfare in human history.

The Kobarid Museum offers its visitors a special re-experience of the time when the maelstrom of the Great War raged in this area. The Museum is known for its highly sensitive method of presenting through personal narratives of the protagonists of the Isonzo Front the places, events and people who marked the Front.

You are kindly invited to find out why the Twelfth Isonzo Battle was so special that it rose to worldwide historical fame. Ever more numerous visitors from all over the world keep coming to learn about the story of the so-called ‘Miracle of Kobarid’. Since 1990, the Museum has been the central point for the presentation of the Isonzo Front heritage and belongs to the most visited museums in Slovenia. Originally a private collection, the Kobarid Museum developed into a representational collection and was awarded the Council of Europe Museum Prize and was nominated for the European Museum of the Year Award.

The mission of the Museum with its permanent collection, temporary exhibitions and narrations is to communicate a clear warning against the crimes and madness of war which finally results merely in producing victims. The mission of the Museum is to spread the message of peace! Like the valley of the Soča, the Kobarid Museum will also take your breath away. It is certainly worth seeing.

Welcome every day!
